

Dear Resident,

We are writing regarding the Lymm Dickensian Christmas Festival, which will be held on Saturday 9th December 2023. The procession through the village will commence at 1:30 pm. As you will be aware this is a long-established event, the origins of which date back more than 30 years.

We are writing to inform you that the following road closures will be in place on the day to allow the Lymm Dickensian procession to move through the village and for the market in the village centre to take place:

07:00 – 18:00	Eagle Brow to Lymm Cross and Whitbarrow Road / Bridgewater Street, Henry Street, The Dingle & The Grove.
12:30pm – 2.30pm	Brookfield Road (from Whitbarrow Road to Eagle Brow, Maltmans Road Brookfield Close, Davies Way exit to Brookfield Road,
1 pm – 2.30pm	Rectory Lane exit to the Cross, Lymm Bridge, New Road, Dane Bank Road, The Fleece Car Park Exit, The Square

Please note that these are approximate times and therefore closures may be in place slightly earlier and/or later than anticipated.

The participants in the procession will line up along Brookfield Road and the parade will commence from this location at 1.30pm. We apologise in advance for any inconvenience caused in particular to residents and we appreciate your patience and understanding.

We hope that you will join us in celebrating the festival this year and thank you for your support and co-operation in advance.

Yours sincerely,

The Lymm Dickensian Committee

Lymm Dickensian is proud to be supported by

LYMM
PARISH COUNCIL

